

Mobile market study - Submissions and anticipated timeline to complete the study

2 November 2018

Good morning

We write to tell you that for our mobile market study:

- we will be publishing submissions on our Issues paper on our website today (Friday 2 November); and
- we have included an indicative timeline for completing the study.

Submissions received

We received nine submissions from interested parties on our Issues paper by the Friday, 26 October 2018 due date.

Public versions of these submissions will be available on the Commerce Commissioner website from midday Friday 2nd November.

The Commission will review the submissions and continue to gather further information to inform the study over the next few months before beginning to compile our preliminary findings.

Anticipated timeline to complete the study

We outline below our high-level indicative timeline to complete the study.

Description	Indicative timeframe
Analysis of Submissions, further information gathering and assessment	Nov 18 – Feb 19
Preliminary findings released	Apr-19
Submissions due on the preliminary findings paper	6 weeks after findings published
Submissions published	1 week after Submissions received
Cross submissions due	2 weeks after Submissions published
Mobile market study conference (if required)	June/July 2019
Mobile market study Findings paper released	Sep 2019

*Dates maybe be subject to change.

If you have any questions about the study please contact Andrew Harrison at andrew.harrison@comcom.govt.nz

Vannessa Turner

Manager Telecommunications Networks & Compliance | Regulation Branch
Commerce Commission | Te Komihana Tauhokohoko
44 The Terrace | PO Box 2351 | Wellington 6140 | New Zealand
DDI +64 (0)4 924 3663 | vannessa.turner@comcom.govt.nz
Follow us on Twitter @NZComCom