

Are you guys going to talk about the role of government regulations in making lives tough for smaller retailers? Get the government to reduce the minimum wage, so small retailers have a better chance of survival. Big supermarket chains can afford to replace workers with checkout kiosks, small retailers can't.