

It supports the findings of the Commission Grocery Report and seeks that essential life sustaining food be affordable and nutritious for all New Zealanders and that growers and suppliers receive adequate and fair financial return. The creation of a joint venture with Government is sort.