

Subject: Commerce Commission: Late submission on the Mobile Market Study Preliminary Findings now available

Good afternoon

Today we have published a late submission received from TUANZ in response to our Mobile Market Study Preliminary Findings paper.

We thank TUANZ for its submission, which is available on our website at:

<https://comcom.govt.nz/regulated-industries/telecommunications/projects/mobile-market-study>

Cross-submissions

Cross-submissions on the Mobile Market Study Preliminary Findings paper are due by 5pm on Friday, 19 July 2019. We consider that the remaining two weeks of the cross submission period are sufficient for interested parties to consider anything raised in the TUANZ submission.

Kind regards

Simon Thomson
