Dear Dr Gale

Consultation on UBA Price Review Timetable

- 1 We refer to your note to the industry of 6 March 2013 seeking views on the Commerce Commission's UBA price review timetable.
- 2 We understand and accept that the Commerce Commission is bound by law to proceed to complete the UBA price review regardless of Ministerial statements indicating the effective date of the review will be extended to 30 November 2015.
- 3 In saying that, however, Enable Networks Limited requires certainty and considers it would be unhelpful for a UBA price to be determined and then to potentially change as a result of the regulatory review. If possible the final price should be determined in tandem with the review process.

Yours sincerely

Amanda Strong
General Counsel
Enable Services Limited
